

Embassy of India
Belgrade

Press Release

Ambassador's farewell meeting with the Chairperson of the Parliamentary Friendship Group with India

H.E. Narinder Chauhan, Indian Ambassador to the Republic of Serbia, visited the National Assembly of Serbia for a farewell meeting with Ms. Ivana Stojiljkovic, Chairperson of the Parliamentary Friendship Group with India on 6th July 2018.

Ms. Ivana Stojiljkovic thanked Ambassador for successful cooperation during her assignment in Serbia and noted that enhancement of bilateral relations is evident by the recent high level visits from both sides. Ms. Stojiljkovic stressed that India and Serbia share traditionally friendly relations and there is scope for further enhancement of bilateral cooperation in all spheres. She expressed gratitude for India's continued support for territorial integrity and sovereignty of Serbia and assured that Serbia will continue to support India in international forums and fight against terrorism. Ms Stojiljkovic remarked that this year is very important for both countries, as India and Serbia mark 70 years of diplomatic relations.

Ambassador expressed pleasure on the successful inter parliamentary cooperation and thanked Serbia for its support in international forums and in the United Nations to declare 21st June as International Day of Yoga. It was agreed that the two countries would continue to develop and expand parliamentary cooperation.

The meeting was also attended by Ms Vera Jovanovic, member of the Parliamentary Friendship Group with India.

July 10, 2018
Belgrade